

"It gave me space to listen."

Drawing Closer to God through the Arts

"It was good to draw apart to hear his voice."

Creative arts workshops

Talitha offers creative arts workshops designed for the church community.

Using scripture, contemplation and simple arts activities Talitha workshops are an opportunity to draw closer to God, and to explore your own unique identity through voice, movement, music, drama and visual arts.

"The group inspired me to trust God again."

Who are the workshops for?

You don't need to be creative to come along. Talitha church workshops are for anyone interested in exploring the creative arts as a way to build relationship with God.

Talitha Arts is a Registered Charity Number 1162475.

What to expect

The session will include various simple creative activities. We will use scripture as a springboard for spoken word exercises and discovery and prayer will be integrated for reflection.

There is no charge to run church workshops we simply ask participants for a suggested donation of £10 to cover the cost of art materials.

About Talitha

Talitha is a unique non-profit making group of professional artists and arts therapists passionate about the potential to restore hope, dignity and worth through the freedom of the creative arts.

In addition to our Church workshops we also work with those recovering from trauma, sexual exploitation, emotional and physical abuse as well as dementia patients. To find out more please visit our website.
